

National Conference

Make in India – Opportunities and challenges for entrepreneurs 18-Aug-2015

The conference achieved another milestone in the effort to enhance “Industry Institute” interaction.

The day started with registration at 09:00 am.

The Inaugural session which started at 09:30 am was ornamented by Prof. Charan Singh, IIM –B, outlined the global and Indian economic scenario and also highlighted some of opportunities and challenges for MSME in line with Make in India project. He highlighted the challenges faced by MSME and suggested a few measures which will help the sector overcome these. Prof. V. Murugaiah, Chairman, Institute for Management Studies, Davangere University, addressed about the importance of industry interaction in Management Education and customizing the management programs with respect to Industry requirements. Shri. B N Gadag, Joint Director, DIC Dharwad, briefed on the role of new and young entrepreneurs and how DIC can help the aspiring entrepreneurs. Shri Ramesh Kothari, Chairman, GEN Society highlighted the role of common man and how MII impacts them.

The GBS Impact – Journal of multidisciplinary research was released on the occasion. A total of 180+ audiences (Authors, Invitee personalities from MSME Hubli-Dharwad, and students) witnessed the inaugural.

Panel discussion on Make in India– Opportunities and Challenges for Entrepreneurs was initiated by moderator Shri Sheshgiri Kulkarni, CA, Hubli at 11:30 am, in the GBS auditorium. The Panel discussion was attended by 180+ Audience.

The distinguished speakers for the panel discussion were, Dr. K Gopinath for “Renewable Energy - Thermal Power”, Dr. Satish Annigeri, for “Civil Construction - Civil” ,Dr. Jagadish Pujari, for “Information Technology & Information Science”, Dr. M R Patil , Goa for “Research Standardization”, Dr. M M Bagali, Jain University , Bangalore for “Skill development as a requisite for success of Make in India”, Dr. Chandrappa for “KSFC Financing for entrepreneurship” , Dr. N A Charanthimath for “Improvisation in Governance”, Shri. Maltesh Jeevannavar, for “Training for Entrepreneurs from CEDOK, Dharwad” Shri Sandeep Bidasaria, Southern Ferro, Hubli for “Challenges faced by Entrepreneur in Hubli-Dharwad region”, and Shri Arvind Tipradi, Spicer India Limited, for “manufacturing industry – specifically with respect to Automobile and Auto-component industry”.

Post lunch the two parallel technical sessions were conducted with expert Jury members from technical and management background. Papers were presented by entrepreneurs, academicians, senior corporate personnel, and students of management and engineering. A total of 33 papers were presented on the conference day.

GLOBAL EDUCATION NETWORK SOCIETY'S

The Conference was concluded with Hi-tea and certificate distribution.

The National Conference was coordinated by Prof. Prasad Kulkarni and Prof. Bhargav Revankar.

